Explore the Meaning of Easter

POWERSOURCE

ASK JESUS:

1. To make biblical events and symbols meaningful to kids.
2. To use Easter celebrations and Holy Week worship to strengthen family members' faith.
3. To guide your efforts as a spiritual role model.

Understanding the deep meaning of biblical events is a vital part of our faith journey. And while children may not have the same understanding as adults, we can introduce them to concrete concepts and then guide them to understand more abstract levels of meaning. This progression from concrete to abstract thinking means your children will begin to understand events and symbols of the Bible on a deeper level. Begin by presenting Bible events, including Easter, in their entirety—and in age-appropriate ways.

Symbols and objects play a key role in some Bible accounts, such as the events of Holy Week. Determine which symbols kids understand and which are more difficult. Then keep these tips in mind.

- Add relevance. Identify themes your kids have experience with, such as friendship, fear, or kindness. Then connect the Bible account to one of those themes. Stories that show how God works in kids' lives will stick with them.
- Be faithful to the Bible. Present God accurately and tell the whole story in an age-appropriate way.
- Build "cognitive bridges." Make connections by expanding on common experiences. For example, city kids may not relate to the image of sheep and a shepherd. Begin with the familiar—pets kids have—and talk about how they love and care for them. Proceed to other animals and their keepers, and finally to the sheep and shepherd.

TEACHABLE MOMENTS

Wiped Clean

Demonstrate how Jesus' death on Good Friday wipes away our sins. You'll need newspapers, baby wipes, a candle, matches, and a trash can. Sit in a circle around some newspapers. Say: These newspapers represent sin, or ways we disobey God. Grab some and rub the ink on your hands.

Read aloud 1 John 1:9. Say: Just as the ink stains our hands, our sins leave dirty stains on our hearts.

Give each family member a baby wipe. Dim the lights and light the candle. Say: Jesus came into a dark, sinful world to be our light. Because Jesus died for us, we are forgiven and can live in his light forever! As you focus your eyes on the light, Jesus, clean your hands with the wipe. Then drop it into the trash can to remind you that when Jesus erases your sins, they're gone for good.

Close in prayer, thanking Jesus for being a light in our dark world and for dying on the cross for our sins.

Celebrate Jesus—and Faith

Holy Week and Easter are ideal opportunities to use Christian symbols to share the Gospel. Remember that although children are wired to be spiritually curious, they reason concretely. Keep kids' perspectives in mind and realize that their brains are continually developing. Faith growth is a progression, not a leap, and children's images of God expand as they struggle with life's complexities. Accept immature perceptions for now, but challenge kids more as their ability to think abstractly develops. Try these activities to spark discussions about Jesus' death and resurrection.

“Palm” Parade Say: “In Bible times, people waved palm branches to show honor. Today we support people such as athletes by waving rally towels or signs.” Use fabric markers to decorate large cloth pieces for Easter week. Include words and pictures such as “Jesus is King!” and “He’s Risen!” Re-enact Palm Sunday by cheering for Jesus. Then display the fabric pieces as reminders of Jesus’ place of honor in your lives.

Precious Preparation Read aloud Mark 14:3-9. Say: “Before Jesus died, this woman gave him a very special gift. We can give Jesus gifts from our heart, too.” Have family members take turns sharing things they can do to honor Jesus. As each person shares, spray perfume into the air or on the person.

Given for You Celebrate Jesus’ last meal with his disciples—and his gift of Holy Communion. Share a loaf of bread, with each person tearing off a bit before passing it on. Read aloud Matthew 26:26-28. Say: “It might sound strange to eat Jesus’ body and drink his blood. What do you suppose the disciples thought at this supper with Jesus?” Share your church’s tradition of Communion or talk about what the special meal means to you.

Betrayed! Set out 30 dimes and let kids count them. Read aloud Matthew 26:14-16. Say: “Judas betrayed Jesus, or turned him in to soldiers, for about 120 days of wages.” Ask: “Was Jesus’ life on earth worth more than that silver? Why or why not? What’s the true value of Jesus’ life to our family?”

Egg-stra Impact For kids who won’t swallow small items, fill plastic Easter eggs with symbols of Holy Week. Ideas include purple cloth, a thorn, a sponge, a nail, a rock, and so on. (For more, visit childrensministry.com/new-resurrection-eggs/) Let kids handle the objects as you discuss Jesus’ journey to the cross.

From Death to Life! Set three small cups in a row. Fill the two outside cups halfway with water. Add blue food coloring to one and yellow to the other. (Leave the center cup empty.) Say: “When Jesus died, people were sad and blue. But on Sunday, they were happy to see he was alive!” Fold two paper towels. Put one partway in the blue water and partway in the empty cup. Place the other partway in the yellow water and partway in the empty cup. Water will travel through the towels, filling the center cup with green water. Say: “Jesus rose to give us life!”

“I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me will have life, even after dying. Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die.”

—John 11:25-26

Heart Creations from March 22 HCKids Lesson

CoronaVirus & HCKids

Most of you should have received an update from either the Harvest, HCKids, or both. Until further notice, the church is closed to all groups, HCKids and Sunday service. Sundays will be live streamed on Facebook and Youtube until we are able to meet together again.

HCKids will also be in a new form. HCKids Director, Sandra Brown, has been emailing each week with a lesson, video, songs, game, and craft. If you would like to share your HCKids lesson creations you can by either email, Sandra.brown@weareharvest.com, or by posting on our Facebook page.

THE CRAYON GOSPEL

We have started our explosion of color with our Easter HCKids lessons – Crayon Gospel. We have colored with Purple, Red, Black and Pink. We will continue this with Orange, White, Green and Yellow.

Now is a great time to check out rightnow media. If you do not have the link, email hckids@weareharvest.com.

HCKids Daily Challenge & Bible Bucks

During this time of not knowing when we will be able to meet as a group again, HCKids Admin has decided to post a daily challenge.

Starting on April 1, 2020 HCKids will be posting the daily challenge on our new Facebook page – HCKids Daily Challenge 2020. If you would like to join the challenge please ask for an invite or email Sandra.brown@weareharvest.com.

Each challenge requires either a picture, video or a post of the kids or family. The new Facebook page is private and posts can only be seen by Administrative approved members.

Kids can earn Bible Bucks by submitting their daily challenge, Weekly lesson art projects, a video of their memorized Memory verse, or pictures of them or family reading their Bible.

You can also join the challenge by email Sandra.brown@weareharvest.com with your challenge results.

MEDIA MADNESS

MOVIE

Title: Trolls World Tour
Genre: Animation, Adventure, Comedy
Rating: PG
Cast: Justin Timberlake, Anna Kendrick, Mary J. Blige, James Corden, Kelly Clarkson
Synopsis: In this sequel to the 2016 hit, Poppy and Branch learn about—and visit—other Troll tribes, each of which specializes in a certain musical genre. The Trolls band together to stop Queen Barb from destroying all types of music except her favorite, rock.
Our Take: With its message of artistic diversity, this film lets viewers know it's okay to have certain likes and dislikes. Although some musical styles are stereotyped, the movie can lead to discussions about song preferences, lyric choices, and even worship styles.

BOOK

Title: New Kid
Author: Jerry Craft
Synopsis: This middle-grade book, the first graphic novel to win the Newbery Medal, tells the story of Jordan Banks, a black seventh-grader who loves to draw cartoons. When he's sent to a mostly white private school, Jordan faces a variety of challenges as he tries to fit in. His sketches reveal the tensions of moving between two distinct places and cultures.
Our Take: Kids ages 8 to 12 will enjoy this funny yet thoughtful book, putting themselves in Jordan's shoes. In addition to racism, the storyline tackles the universal highs and lows of middle school. The graphic-novel format is ideal for reluctant readers.

Games, Podcasts & Apps

Wattam

This colorful, bouncy “goof around” game for PlayStation4 is filled with silly, childlike wonder—but also is a bit simplistic, according to reviewers. The player is a green-cubed mayor, making friends and spreading joy. Rated E10+, this game has mild crude humor such as “poop” shapes.

Circle Round

The 10- to 20-minute episodes of this podcast feature kid-friendly folktales from around the world. They address values such as kindness, persistence, and generosity. Suggested activities encourage family discussions afterward. The podcast is geared toward story-lovers ages 4 to 10.

The Little Line

With this iPhone and iPad app, children can draw illustrations for an adventure story about a little boy. They also can erase anything they don't like, such as scary monsters. The app, based on Serge Bloch's children's book The Big Adventure of a Little Line, is best for kids ages 4 and up.

CULTURE & TRENDS

Hello, Hezekiah! According to Social Security records, the use of rare or uncommon biblical baby names is growing exponentially; meanwhile, traditional Bible names—especially for boys—are on the decline. Instead of John, David, and Matthew, more parents are now opting for Levi, Asher, Barnabas, Silas, and Obadiah. (christianitytoday.com)

Time Out TikTok, the short-form video app wildly popular with kids, added new safety features that allow parents to limit screen time, block the direct-messaging features, and restrict content that's deemed inappropriate. (newsroom.tiktok.com)

QUICK STATS

The Future of Work Among children born in 2010 and later, 65% will end up working in careers that currently don't exist. These employees-to-be are likely to have up to 18 different jobs spanning six distinct careers. (weforum.org)

Church Choices Of parents who are “highly engaged Christians,” 58% say they chose their church mainly for its children's programming. Active churchgoers also are more likely to rely on the church—rather than on extended family—to nurture their children's faith development. (barna.org)

This page is designed to help educate parents and isn't meant to endorse any movie, music, or product. Our prayer is that you'll make informed decisions about what your children watch, read, listen to, and play.

Here are some fun activities to fill your time during this Social Distancing season our lives.
